

Dear Member,

Our profession of Chartered Accountancy has gone a sea change in comparison to the earlier years. In today's competitive world, our clients expect us to have knowledge about all the fields in our profession. It is very difficult for us to have an expertise in all the fields of our profession, but if we have a working knowledge about all the fields we can solve the client's query to a larger extent. In particular, new entrants in our professions of Chartered Accountancy face such queries on a regular basis.

With the above thoughts in our mind we are pleased to announce a series of lecture meeting in the month of July. The main purpose of arranging such lecture series for Chartered Accountants is to provide a class room style teaching facility to them. They shall also interact more freely with the learned faculties, update their knowledge and get practical solutions of their queries.
